JUNMAI Pure sake brewed from rice, water and yeast. No alcohol added. 30% is the minimum polish rate for a junmai sake.

GINJO Sake brewed with rice that has been polished removing 40% of the grain. Smooth, fragrant and complex.

DAIGINJO Sake brewed with rice that has been polished removing 50% of the grain lighter and smoother than ginjo.

NIGORI Called “unfiltered”, it is roughly filtered so that some rice and koji rice in the fermenting tank purposefully make it into the bottle. Before modern filtering technology, all sakes were nigori. It is a sweeter thicker sake.
